

What's Happening at the Castles...

"The Intimate Henry Tour"

A New Way of Experiencing Fonthill Museum

February 10 - March 11, 2007 Only!

Enter the Private World of Henry Mercer...

...and explore the times, passions, and daily life of this very complex man.

Through a series of evocative room settings and personal stories, this very special tour explores little-known aspects of Mercer's private life at his castle-like Doylestown home, Fonthill. Learn about Mercer as a romantic, as a friend, as a social critic, as a matchmaker, as an employer, and much more.

If you've never met Henry Mercer, visit Fonthill this winter...you might be in for a surprise!

Did You Know?

One of Henry Mercer's closest friends was Owen Wister, a writer of western novels and author of The Virginian?
