

Educators' Open House

Tuesday, October 16, 2007
4-6 p.m.
at Fonthill Museum

Join us for The Bucks County Historical Society's annual Educators' Open House which will take place this year at Fonthill Museum. Teachers will receive a "Behind the Scenes" tour of the museum and visit portions of the building not on the regular daytime tour, such as the Kitchen, Servant's Quarters, Basement, and Terrace Pavilion. Information will be available about Mercer and Fonthill Museum's school and outreach programs designed to enhance your curriculum and provide enrichment opportunities for students at all grade levels. The Open House is free and includes light refreshments and a raffle to win a tile from the Moravian Pottery and Tile Works. Please contact the Education Department at 215-345-0210, ext. 123 or at mmedu@mercermuseum.org to register.
