

“Learn Something Old!”

Adult Winter-time Programs at the Mercer Museum

Sex and the City: Scandalous Tales of Historic Proportions

Thursday, February 9, 7-9 pm

$15/$12 members – pre-registration required

Celebrate Valentine’s Day by exploring stories of sexual scandals, hi-jinks and misconduct from America’s past. Participants will be astonished at the litany of licentious tales to be “uncovered.”

This is the Autoharp!

Sunday, February 26, 2-3:30 pm

$15/$12 members (or register for both this and the “Dulcimer” program below for $25/$20 members)

Program introduces participants to the music of the autoharp through demonstration, discussion, hands-on try-its and a performance by musician Marti Rogers.

This is the Dulcimer!

Sunday, March 25, 2-3:30 pm

$15/$12 members (or register for both this and the “Autoharp” program below for $25/$20 members)

Program introduces participants to the music of the Appalachian dulcimer through demonstration, discussion, hands-on try-its, and a performance by musician Marti Rogers.

Exploring Early Lighting Devices: A Learning to Look Seminar

Saturday, March 3, 10 am -12:30 pm

Mercer Museum Collections Storage and Study Center

$20/$15 members – pre-registration required

Collector Daniel Sohn of the Rushlight Club explains and demonstrates common lighting technologies of the 1700s and 1800s. Participants may bring antique lighting devices of their own for expert examination.

Call 215-348-9461 to register!

84 South Pine St., Doylestown, Pa. 18901 ▪ 215-345-0210
www.mercermuseum.org ▪ mmeduc@mercermuseum.org