Tickets on Sale for Dolls' Day Out on Saturday, April 7

DOYLESTOWN, PA: (February 28, 2018) – Children are invited to dress up and bring their favorite doll to the Mercer Museum for a day on the Town! The 23rd annual Dolls' Day Out will take place on Saturday, April 7 from 10:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Guests to Dolls' Day Out will enjoy a special seated tea with the Doll Fairy in the museum's elegant Elkins Gallery. Teatimes are at 10:30 a.m., noon, 1:30 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. Youngsters will also enjoy activities including a tea etiquette lesson, storytelling, arts & crafts, a doll parade, a visit to the Mercer's Log House, shopping for the latest in doll fashions and more. Tickets to Dolls' Day Out are $15 per person and can be purchased on mercermuseum.org.

Dolls' Day Out is presented with the support of the BuxMont Doll Lover's Club.

About the Mercer Museum

The Mercer Museum, one of Bucks County's premier tourist attractions, offers visitors a unique window into pre-Industrial America as seen through the implements used in everyday life. The Museum's collection includes more than 50,000 objects exhibiting the tools of more than 60 different crafts and trades, providing one of the world's most comprehensive portraits of material culture in America. On view in the museum's Martin & Warwick Foundation Galleries through April 15 is the exhibition African American Quilts: From Traditional to Contemporary. The Mercer Museum is located at 84 South Pine Street in Doylestown and is open for self-guided exploration 7 days a week. For more information, call 215-345-0210, or visit mercermuseum.org.
