

Bucks County History Crossword, Hard

Down:

- The Delaware Canal connected Easton, PA and this Lower Bucks town
- Influential higher education school run by William Tennent in the 1720s
- US space program research facility, abbr.
- The Stover Myer's Mill operated along this creek in Bedminster Township
- Pearl S. Buck's "The Good _____"
- First colonial village in Bucks County
- Lenape chief who signed treaty with William Penn
- His works include "The Bridges of Toko-ri" and "The World is my Home"
- Gen. Washington surprised them in Trenton

Across:

- An early blast furnace produced iron stove plates starting in 1727 in this Upper Bucks town
- County seat moved to Doylestown from _____ in 1813
- _____ Farm, Oscar Hammerstein's home in Doylestown
- Training camp in Doylestown for recruits in the Civil War
- In 1896, the first trolley route in the county opened in this Lower Bucks town
- Knechts and Sheards are examples of this type of bridge